FOOTBALL GAME WITH WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL HAS BEEN CANCELLED

Local Team Refuses to Practice After Martucci Is Suspended

FACULTY CALLS OFF THE GAME

The football game scheduled for Saturday afternoon next, between the teams of the Washington High and the Charleroi High has been cancelled by the faculty of the local institution. Official announcement of this fact was made yesterday morning, following a refusal of the members of the football squad to take their usual practice Wednesday evening.

The beginning of the trouble, however, had its inception a few days previous, when Prof. Lively, principal of the High school, requested that Martucci turn in his entire football equipment, as he had been ordered to do by the team. This action, it is said, was taken because the player in question had no scholastic standing as required by the rules of the Washington County Interscholastic Association and to the further fact that his method of play was not looked upon with favor.

When the news of the suspension became known to other members of the football squad they refused to go out for practice as usual and it was then that the faculty informed them that unless they did, the forthcoming game with Washington would be cancelled. This was done Thursday morning, and as a consequence there will be no contest at the local park on Saturday as anticipated. What will be done with the balance of the schedule is a matter to be acted upon later, and will depend entirely upon what may develop within the next few days. The other numbers on the local schedule provided for a game with the California Normal on November 8th, an open date on November 15th, at Monongahela on the 22nd, and the closing game of the season with the Donora High at Donora on Thanksgiving day.

PREDICTS NEW RAILROAD FOR THE UPPER VALLEY

A new railroad line between Pittsburgh and Fairmont, W. Va., is discussed in a recent issue of the Monongahela "Journal." This route will have track connections with the Monongahela Railroad and the Baltimore & Ohio, and will traverse the richest coal, gas, oil and agricultural sections in the United States. It is maintained that the route will be shorter by 50 miles than any existing route between Pittsburgh and Fairmont.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Laughlin, of Look No. 4—a son.

HOUSE DAMAGED BY POWDER BOMB

A bomb explosion at 2 o'clock this morning at the home of B. Crosby, a colored mill worker, at 99 Grant avenue, Monessen, did considerable damage to the house. A keg of powder had been placed in the kitchen, to which was attached a Mass tube, through which a miner's squib was run to the powder. This arrangement gave the perpetrator plenty of time to get to a safe place before the explosion occurred. The force of the concussion completely destroyed the porch and moved the sidewalk of the house about one foot. No one was injured. The State Police made an immediate investigation and four suspects were arrested, who are being held pending further investigation.

WOMAN SHOT BY MASKED ROBBERS

Mrs. Susie Kablas, aged 40 years, whose home is on the old Grable farm, near Ventnor, is in the Memorial hospital, Monongahela, suffering from a gunshot wound in the head inflicted by masked men who invaded her home Thursday morning and demanded money. Mrs. Kablas was making bread at the time when two masked men entered her home and at the point of revolvers demanded money. She denied having any and they proceeded to search the house. Not finding any they took revenge by shooting the woman. The wound is not considered serious and she is expected to recover. No arrests have been made.

McDERMOTT-EDWARDS WEDDINGS THURSDAY

The wedding of Miss Lauretta Edwards of Roscoe to Thomas J. McDermott of Charleroi was solemnized at Washington, Pa., Thursday. The bride is well known in Charleroi having been a teacher in the Charleroi Public Schools. Mr. McDermott is one of the town's prominent business men.

Famous War Correspondent Visits Old Brownsville Home

Perceval Phillips, probably the ablest, and also accompanied world's greatest war correspondent, the vanguard of the cavalry into Coaling in Brownsville Tuesday evening to pay a dying visit to his mother, Mrs. A. C. Phillips of Church street and renew acquaintances with forces of the Rhine with headquarters at Cologne.

Mr. Phillips stated that the League of Nations was a splendid ideal but he had his doubts about it being a success. He thinks that all the problems of the League of Nations could be handled more successfully by an Anglo-American Alliance acting in harmony with France. He also stated in his interview that the American forces which were attached to the British forces excited the highest admiration of the British and that he had heard soldiers of all ranks from the general to the corporal instructor declare that it was hard to find finer fighting material or men more eager to learn than the American troops.

In viewing his old home town papers but was soon called to Pittsburgh where he served in executive positions on newspapers there going from Pittsburgh to New York and from there to London where he was employed on the London Express.

Mr. Phillips watched and reported the world war from the invasion of Belgium to the signing of the armistice. He was then attached to the British back to London to accompany the Prince of Wales on his tour of the Dominion of Canada. Mr. Phillips has already received another "war assignment" and will return overseas November 5 to report the upheaval in the Balkans.

Mr. Phillips' last visit to this country was in 1910, when he came over from England for the purpose of returning with the detectives who took back Dr. Crippen, notorious murderer, who fled to Canada after the killing his wife in the suburbs of London.

He served as correspondent in the fields from the declaration of the war when he was in Belgium until the signing of the armistice last year with the exception of seven months which he spent in special work on the Belgium-Dutch frontier after the fall of Antwerp in October, 1914. He saw the landing of the first British troops in France and was one of the five correspondents to be permitted officially to join the British forces in the field.

He was present at the battles of Ypres, Loos, Festubert, Somme, Arras, Messines Ridge, Cambrai, the great German offensive in 1918 and through the British offensive from its beginning on the 8th of August, until hostilities ceased on November 11. He then accompanied the advance of the British forces to other features which furnished the Rhine and was present at the triumphal entry of the King and Queen of Belgium and later went with members and guests and it was across to the German frontier of a late hour before the party came Malmédy with the first British Cavalry to an end.

ALL COAL MINES IN THE COUNTY WILL BE CLOSED THIS EVENING

DONORA WOMAN ATTEMPTS TO COMMIT SUICIDE

Mrs. Louise Case, aged 19, wife of George Case, of 500 Meldon avenue, Donora, attempted to commit suicide while at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Anna Case, in Ashtand, Ky., on Thursday. Mr. Case is a steel worker and when the strike began in September went with his wife to visit his mother. It is said that while in Ashtand Case began to pay visits to his former wife, and this caused trouble in his own household which resulted in his wife shooting herself through the right breast. She was taken to the hospital.

Shutdown will Affect 20,000 Men who Are Employed Therein

It is expected that every coal mine in Washington county, as well as the Monongahela valley, will close down this evening, in obedience to the orders issued from the national headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America. The order will affect directly 20,000 miners in Washington county, which is one of the big coal producing counties of the state.

SUSPENSION WILL BE COMPLETE

While many of the miners are said to be against the strike, they will be loyal to the union and as a consequence it is anticipated that not a pound of coal will be mined in the county tomorrow. Mining conditions in the county during the year have been fairly satisfactory, with little if any labor trouble reported from any point. Many of the men expect the strike to be of short duration.

The operators will make no endeavor to open the mines. The matter will be allowed to adjust itself to a policy of watchful waiting, although prepared for any contingency that may arise. It is not unlikely that arbitration or at least a conference between miners and operators will be held within a very short period and that some adjustment will be made of the pending differences.

Among the coal companies in this section of the state, the hardest hit by the strike are the Pittsburgh Coal company, the Union Coal & Coke company, and the Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal company.

The payroll of the mines in the county for the year ending December 31, 1918, totalled $23,750,000, and this sum may be exceeded by the totals for 1919.

Washington county is in District No. 5, of which Phillip Murray is President. With other officers of the district he returned Thursday from Indianapolis, where a conference of all the miners' officials was held on Wednesday and at which time a reply was formulated and issued to the public, stating the position of the miners in the present controversy.

Local industries will be able to continue for some time yet, but unless the strike is settled within a reasonable period the coal shortage will become more than acute.

College hazers are likely to moderate their enthusiasm somewhat now that one of them has been sent to the penitentiary in Virginia and two others are in jail.

AMERICAN LEGION TO MEET IN NOVEMBER

In order to complete arrangements for the first National Convention of The American Legion which will be held in Minneapolis on November 10, 11 and 12, National Headquarters of the Legion will be established this week at the Hotel Radisson, Minneapolis, in charge of Franklin D'Olier, chairman of the national committee on convention arrangements, and Eric Fisher Wood, national secretary. Henry D. Lindsley, chairman of the Joint National Executive Committee, who will preside at the opening sessions of the convention will arrive on next Monday.

Advance offices have already been opened in Minneapolis by Lemuel Bolles, assistant national secretary who has charge of the allotment of the 2500 delegates and alternates representing approximately 1,000,000 members of the Legion who will attend the convention have been perfected by a special committee headed by Milton J. Foreman, of Chicago, chairman of the Paris Executive Committee, and Frederick B. Wells, chairman of the Minneapolis Convention Committee.

The trouble which occurred following the football game at the local park last Saturday afternoon, and in which the referee was assaulted, finds another echo in information made before Justice of the Peace Whitehead on Thursday by Prof. T. L. Pollock, in which Leo Claybaugh and George Wagner and James Mitchell are charged with assault and battery, and Okey Wagner with disorderly conduct. The hearing has been fixed for Saturday evening. These same young men were before Burgess Woodward, on Monday evening last, and after a hearing were discharged with a reprimand.

THE HOODLUM AT THE COYLE NEXT WEEK

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the Coyle theatre, Mary Pickford will be shown in her latest picture from her own studios "The Hoodlum." It is the title of the production and it has been termed by critics as her greatest screen success. Mary Pickford plays the role of Amy Burke, granddaughter of a millionaire. From her position as a society girl, where she proves to be the victim of no one, the character of Amy Burke changes to that of a penniless girl where she is a constant winner in card games. Among the things she loses are her nobility, bad temper and her heart.

MERE MONEY

In connection with the proposition not only to disestablish the Church of England but to sell and apply its property to the reduction of the war debt, the London Statist mentions Westminster Abbey among the salable properties and expresses the conviction that it would bring a very large sum. Aside from the question of church disestablishment, a desirable thing from the American point of view, the proposition to turn into money the venerable historic structure which contains the tombs of England's great men strikes one as monstrous. If we had a Westminster Abbey in the United States, no such proposition would be made, much less considered. The suggested comparison calls to mind the European delusion, shared even by the English, that Americans care for nothing but money—a delusion without any other basis than that money has been made more easily and rapidly in this country than in any other.

The truth is that foreigners will stoop to get money in ways that Americans never would, and, if we are to judge by their acts, they care short skirts, rouged cheeks, a replica of the girl he had known in France. Lord Bryce, a very observant and from whom he wanted to get a story to find the home girl in the "American Commonwealth" that No. 1 under the soldier, fresh from the front, is a girl who is a replica of the girl he had known in France. Bryce, a very observant and from whom he wanted to get a story to find the home girl in the "American Commonwealth" that No. 1 under the soldier, fresh from the front, is a girl who is a replica of the girl he had known in France. HOME GIRL DISAPPOINTING

The returned soldier finds the American girl disappointing, according to Mrs. Anna Steese Richardson, who is well known in connection with the "better babies" movement. After talking with great numbers of young boys, including many who went through the most severe fighting and many who were wounded, Mrs. Richardson asserts that the American girl finds the American soldier "terribly disappointing." She says: "The soldier fighting in France identified the girl back in America. From the news that drifted in he pictured her dressed in a Red Cross uniform, or some other equally significant of service, working always to conserve and economize, that she might do her part as faithfully as he knew he was doing his. He saw her dressed in clothes that had done two seasons' duties. And when peace came, and as some people realize, America plunged into an orgy of spending and extravagance unparalleled in its history. The result was that when a boy came back he saw the girl in expensive dresses.

CHANGE FOR THE WORSE

The proposal to rewrite the Bible in "every-day English" is scarcely less displeasing to the literary reader than the proposition of a London clergyman that the prayer-book of the Anglican church be done over in the "West of England" language of the sixteenth century. Language of the sixteenth century be changed through the substitution of obsolete Elizabethan words and the substitution of words in common use. For example, it is urged that "loveth" be replaced by "love," "leadeth" by "lead," "graven image" by "carved image," and so on. Other changes even more destructive of dignity and beauty than the substitution of "reformed" for "grave State documents." A more literal translation of the King James version at points with a view to greater fidelity to the original text may be defended, but what is the excuse for such changes as "graven" to "carved" and "loveth" to "love" when the meaning is precisely the same? Would not "He leadeth ally endorsed is obviously sound.

SURVEYORS AT WORK ON THE MONONGAHELA

Col. H. B. Ferguson, United States district engineer has a surveying party in the field for the detailed report which is to be furnished Congress, for the further improvements of the Monongahela river. The party started at Brownsville and will work up stream. Col. Ferguson expects to place another party in the field within a short time. This party will begin work at Lock No. 7 and will work to the state line, about two miles above Point Marion. Col. Ferguson expects the surveying parties to complete their work within a month, and will submit his report to the next session of Congress.

Former Ambassador Thomas Nelson Page's denunciation of prayers for the dead in the Episcopal Church convention suggests this thought: If character is salvation—and no other theory will satisfy the reflecting mind—then a man's status in the future life is already determined at the moment of his death and prayers in his behalf can not improve his condition. But prayers in this behalf can do the dead no harm and may benefit those who devoutly offer them.

To the People of America

A new Margarine has just been created to take the full place of butter and to cost from a third to a half less.

It is the latest, greatest product of Wm. J. Moxley, founder of the Margarine business in America. - The name of this new Margarine is "DIXIE." Here is what we have done.

1st: We have at last created a Margarine with the full butter taste and flavor. (Only a professional butter taster can tell them apart.)

2nd: We have created a Pasteurized Margarine - pasteurized in every ingredient. And the milk and cream that come to us are supposed to be clarified and pasteurized before they ever leave the milk stations in the country.

But every gallon of that milk and cream—and we use thousands of gallons daily, all guaranteed and pasteurized by us, together with every other ingredient. Before it is ever allowed to go to our churns. So, in DIXIE, you at last have a product that is absolutely wholesome, absolutely pasteurized, absolutely pure.

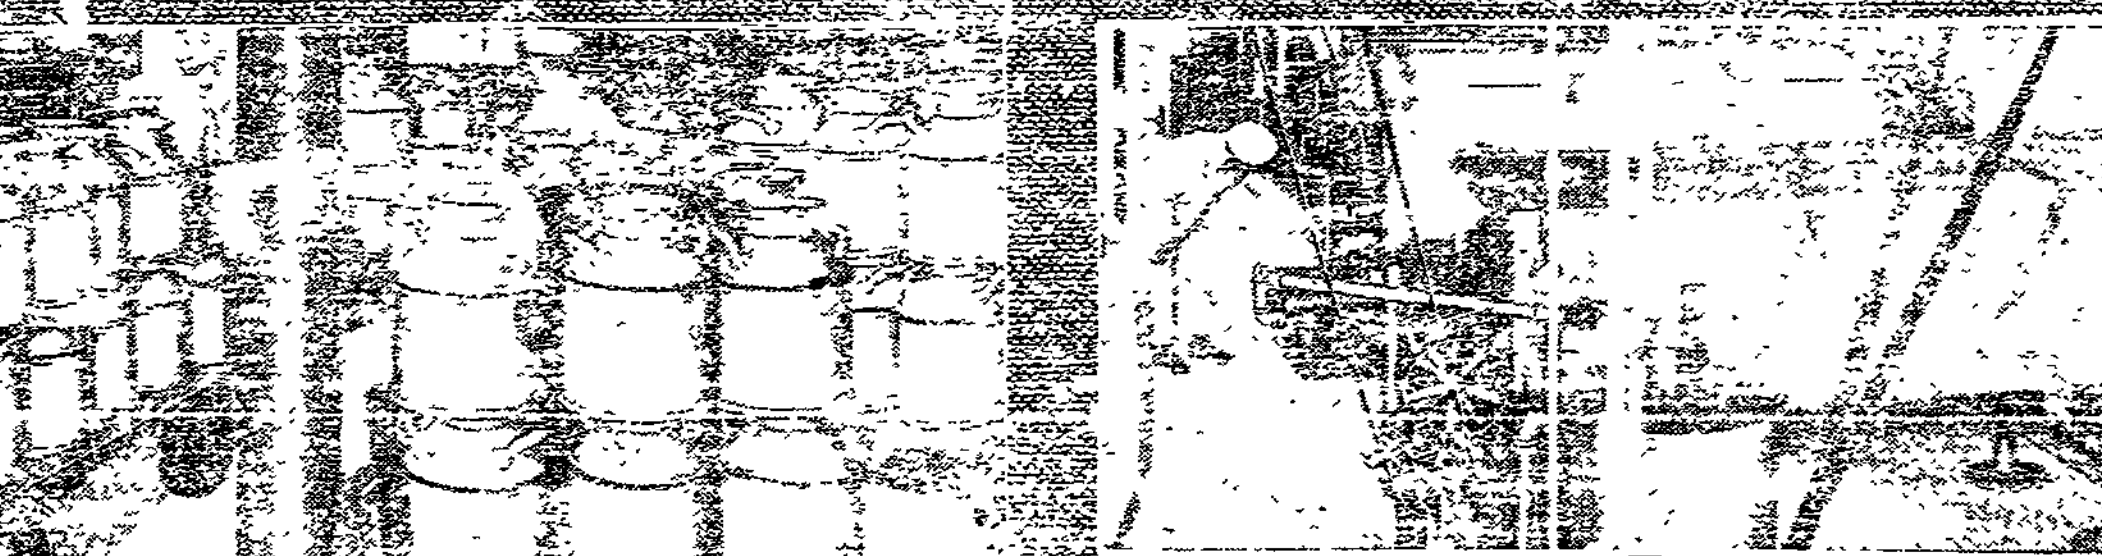

And 3rd: We have created a product that is actually higher in food value than any butter ever made.

Therefore, what we are offering you is a Margarine that is equal to butter in flavor and taste, surer than butter in pasteurization, higher than butter in food value itself and lower than butter in price by a third to a half.

And, finally, you do not have to take our word for these statements. As you read these DIXIE announcements from week to week, you will find the testimony of the Food Experts of America on the Margarine they have already tested and on this new DIXIE Margarine which they are testing now.

Ask your Family Physician or write to your Health Commissioner and our how absolutely vital Pasteurization is. Watch for the report a little bit later from the Famous Columbus Laboratories on the Food Value of Dixie.

Below is an actual photograph of one of our great daily shipments of milk and cream and of one of our big Pasteurizers—your guardian of absolute safety and purity. DIXIE is absolutely pure. Buy it and try it and see for yourself.
